REF
f
Z
7817
N420s
1957:1

PRO
VERITATE
ET REGNO
DEI
CHARLES HOLBROOK LIBRARY
Pacific School of Religion

Selected List

CURRENT BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS

(Items Published in 1955, 1956, and 1957 Only)

Added to the Collection of

THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY

Between January 1, and June 30, 1957

HOLBROOK LIBRARY
PACIFIC SCHOOL
OF RELIGION

3041 Broadway
New York 27, New York

New York. Missionary research library

Foreword

For several years the Missionary Research Library has published an annual selected list of its accessions for the use of mission boards, libraries, and other supporters and friends of the M. R. L.

Beginning with 1957 the SELECTED LIST OF CURRENT BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS will be published twice a year. The present issue includes accessions from January through June, 1957; no titles published before 1955 are listed.

Only the more important pamphlets have been included, and a few selected government documents.

The Missionary Research Library does not act as agent for purchasing books. Orders should be sent direct to the publishers or through your own book agency.

Prices listed for United Nations publications are United States prices since these publications may be obtained at the International Documents Service of Columbia University Press in New York City. In the case of foreign publications, the price has been given in the currency of the country of publication, whenever this information is readily available. Your local book agent or library can indicate where foreign publications may be secured in this country. Friendship Press is the agent for Edinburgh House and the World Dominion Press. Student Christian Movement publications may be secured from Macmillan; most Lutterworth Press items, along with many other British publications on missions, may be purchased from Alex R. Allenson, Inc.

Periodicals and reports are not listed. The Missionary Research Library has published an Occasional Bulletin (Vol. VIII, No. 4, March 29, 1957), Current Periodicals in the M. R. L., Alphabetical List and Indexes. Price: Fifty cents.

The staff of the Missionary Research Library cooperates in the preparation of book annotations for the Selected List.

Werner Rode
Associate Librarian

Additional copies of this Selected List and of previous annual Selected Lists may be purchased at fifty cents each. Payment with order will be appreciated.

MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY
3041 Broadway
New York 27, New York

July, 1957

57166

f
Z
7817
N420s
1957:1
Ref.

Contents

I. HISTORY
- A. History of Missions 1
- B. History of Missionary Societies 1
- C. Church History 1
- D. Ecumenical Movement 2

II. BIOGRAPHY
- A. Missionaries 2
- B. National Christian Leaders 3
- C. General 3

III. LANDS OF THE OLDER CHURCHES
- A. Europe 4
- B. North America 5
- C. Australia, New Zealand, South Africa 5

IV. LANDS OF THE YOUNGER CHURCHES
- A. Japan 6
- B. Korea 7
- C. China - including Taiwan (Formosa) 7
- D. Southeast Asia (Burma, Indo-China, Indonesia, Malaya, Philippine Islands, Thailand) 8
- E. Pacific 9
- F. Southern Asia (Ceylon, India, Nepal, Pakistan) 9
- G. Central Asia 10
- H. Near East and North Africa 11
- I. Africa 13
- J. Latin America and the West Indies 15
- K. North American Indians 16
- L. Australian and New Zealand Aborigines 16
- M. Jews (excluding Israel; see Near East) 16
- N. Fields, General 16

V. WORKS OF REFERENCE
- A. Missions 17
- B. Yearbooks and Directories 17
- C. General and Bibliographical 18

VI. THEORY AND PRINCIPLES OF MISSIONS 19

VII. MISSIONARY METHODS
- A. Evangelism and General Church Work 20
- B. Christian Education 20
- C. Christian Literature and Literacy 21
- D. Medical 21
- E. Rural Missions and Agriculture 21
- F. General Description of Missionary Activities 21
- G. Other Methods and Problems 21

VIII. CHRISTIANITY AND THE NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS; OTHER IDEOLOGIES
- A. Religions of Primitive Peoples 22
- B. Religions of India 22
- C. Islam 22
- D. Buddhism 22
- E. Religions of China; Confucianism and Taoism 22
- F. Shinto 23
- G. Judaism 23
- H. Communism 23
- I. General 23

IX. SOCIAL AND POLITICAL RELATIONS OF MISSIONS 24

X. GENERAL ANTHROPOLOGY AND RELATED SUBJECTS 25

XI. DEVOTIONAL 26

XII. INDEX TO SHORTENED NAMES OF PUBLISHERS 27

I. History

A. HISTORY OF MISSIONS

1. Oliver, Roland.
   How Christian is Africa? London, Highway, 1956. 24 p. 1/6 The modern missionary movement in Africa; the inwardness of the revolutionary struggle which is taking place in Africa today.

2. Van den Berg, Johannes.
   Constrained by Jesus' Love; an Inquiry into the Motives of the Missionary Awakening in Great Britain in the Period Between 1698 and 1815. Kampen, J. H. Kok, 1956. 238 p. Fl.6.90 An historical study into missionary motives showing the various influences which were brought to bear on different individuals and enterprises. It deals with Protestant missionary thought in Puritanism, in Methodism and during the Great Awakening, as well as with the human motives and the Divine motive. The question: Why Mission? is asked in an historical perspective.

3. Wiltgen, Ralph M., S.V.D.
   Gold Coast Mission History, 1471-1880. Techny, Ill., Divine Word Publications, 1956. 181 p. $3.00 Roman Catholic history of Gold Coast missions, with a chapter on Protestant missions for the period.

See also: 56, 66.

B. HISTORY OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

4. Hollister, John N.
   The Centenary of the Methodist Church in Southern Asia. Lucknow, India, Lucknow Publishing House, 1956. 414 p. Well-written story of the first hundred years of Methodist missions in India which have made a vital contribution to the new nation.

5. Kittler, Glenn D.
   The White Fathers. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 299 p. $5.00 A moving historical account of the pioneering years of devoted Roman Catholic missionaries, in northern and central Africa.

6. Thompson, Phyllis.
   Proving God: Financial Experiences of the China Inland Mission. London, Philadelphia, C.I.M. Overseas Fellowship, 1956. 143 p. 7/6 Since its founding in 1865 the China Inland Mission has been carried on by faith and without a regular budget; receipts are determined by expenditures; no debts are incurred. This book tells of many "miraculous experiences" of God's care through wars, persecutions, evacuations and financial crises.

See also: 23, 53, 71, 81, 153, 160, 207.

C. CHURCH HISTORY

7. Langton, Edward.
   History of the Moravian Church. London, Allen & Unwin, 1956. 173 p. 12/6 "The story of the first International Protestant Church" which, as a religious movement, celebrates its five hundredth anniversary in 1957.

8. Murch, James DeForest.
   Co-operation Without Compromise. Grand Rapids, Mich., Wm. B. Eerdman, 1956. 220 p. $3.50 The first published history of the National Association of Evangelicals (organized in 1943) and its militant fundamentalist testimony; with one chapter on the World Evangelical Fellowship, organized in 1951.

9. Protestant Episcopal Church, National Council.
   Empty Shoes; a Study of the Church of South India. N.Y., 1956. 153 p. $1.00 An excellent study and interpretation of this first union of Anglican and non-Anglican churches; objective report to the Episcopal Church in the United States.

10. Wentz, Frederick.
The Times Test the Church. Philadelphia, Muhlenberg, 1956. 154 p. $1.95 A brief survey of the history of Christianity followed by an answer to the new challenge which Christian missions face throughout the world; also a description of the growing interest in church unity and of the role Protestantism is playing in America and in the world.

See also: 60, 93, 158.

D. ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT

11. Lutherischer Weltbund, Deutsches Nationalkomitee.
Lebendige Kirche in der weiten Welt; der lutherische Weltbund auf dem Wege nach Minneapolis, 1957. Herausgegeben von Arno Lehmann. Berlin, Lutherisches Verlagshaus, 1956. 47 p. Analysis of the function and work of The Lutheran World Federation, especially useful in view of its third general assembly in Minneapolis in August 1957.

12. Shedd, Clarence Prouty, and others.
History of the World's Alliance of Young Men's Christian Associations. London, S.P.C.K., 1955. 746 p. $6.90 Dividing the history of the Y.M.C.A. into three parts, the formative years of 1844-78, the expanding years of 1878-1913, and the years in the midst of turmoil, 1913-54, the various contributors to this volume gave a vivid picture of the influence and significance of a truly ecumenical movement.

II. Biography

A. MISSIONARIES

13. Batten, J. R.
Golden Foot; The Story of Judson in Burma. London, Lutterworth, 1956. 95 p. 4/- The story of the missionary heroes Adoniram and Ann Judson, interestingly written for young people.

14. Burgess, Alan.
The Small Woman. N.Y., Dutton, 1957. 256 p. $3.95 Thrillingly told biography, in fiction form, about a brave independent woman missionary in mountainous North China during the nineteen thirties and forties; fact and legend are interwoven.

15. Debenham, Frank.
The Way to Ilala; David Livingstone's Pilgrimage. London, N.Y., Toronto, Longmans, Green, '56 336 p. $7.50 The author, on the basis of the original sources available in the Rhodes-Livingstone Museum, tells the story of this great missionary as accomplished traveller and remarkable geographer and accompanies him through unexplored Africa to Ilala where Livingstone died.

16. De Urbel, Justo Pérez, O.S.B.
Saint Paul, the Missionary. Translated from the Spanish by Paul Barrett. Westminster, Md., Newman Press, 1957. 430 p. $5.00 A skillful Catholic portrait of Paul the man, the saint, the theologian, the writer, the missionary, written to inspire the readers of today with the great thoughts and deeds of the Apostle to the Gentiles.

17. Elliot, Elizabeth.
Through Gates of Splendor. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 256 p. $3.75 "The martyrdom of five American missionaries in the Ecuador jungle." A firsthand account by one of the widows in collaboration with the others, extraordinarily well written with many excellent photographs.

18. Harrison, Irene.
Agatha Harrison; an Impression by Her Sister. London, Allen & Unwin, 1956. 156 p. 12/6 Biography of one of the most influential persons in the cause of Anglo-Indian friendship, much of it given through her personal letters.

19. Jackson, Elva.
Never a Dull Moment. London, Highway, 1956. 144 p. 5/- A lively narrative of life and service in South India, delightfully told by a British missionary.

20. Koether, Luella G., and Surdam, T. Janet.
Two Hundred Days, As Prisoners of the Chinese Communists. Mason City, Iowa, Arrow Printing Co., 1956. 284 p. $3.25 Two American Methodist missionaries, prisoners of the Chinese Communists in 1951, narrate in detail their harrowing experiences, with evidence of humor, faith, and courage.

21. Long, Una, ed.
The Journals of Elizabeth Lees Price; written in Bechuanaland, Southern Africa, 1854-1883, with an Epilogue: 1889 and 1900. London, Edward Arnold, 1956. 564 p. 50/- The letters of the daughter of Robert Moffat, who married the missionary Roger Price and lived and worked with him among the Bechuana tribes during the second half of the last century. The letters reflect extraordinarily rich experiences in missionary work.

22. Northcott, Cecil.
Livingstone in Africa. (World Christian Books, no. 18) London, Lutterworth, 1957. 83 p. 2/6 A new view of the life and work of the explorer-missionary, based on his own writings and material which has become recently available, with a special emphasis on the present-day influence of Livingstone's achievements.

23. Von Matt, Leonard, and Rahner, Hugo, S.J.
St. Ignatius of Loyola; a Pictorial Biography. Chicago, Henry Regnery, 1956. 106 p. and 226 plates. $6.50 Beautifully illustrated book on the life and times of St. Ignatius; the text, provided by a Jesuit scholar, is an ideal running commentary on the photographs of the countryside, cities and churches in which St. Ignatius lived and worked.

See also: 61, 235.

B. NATIONAL CHRISTIAN LEADERS

24. Appasamy, A. J.
The Cross is Heaven. The Life and Writings of Sadhu Sundar Singh. (World Christian Books, no. 13) London, Lutterworth, 1956. 93 p. 2/6 The life and message of the Indian Christian mystic written by the Bishop of Coimbatore.

25. Hunter, Edward.
The Story of Mary Liu. N.Y., Farrar, Straus and Cudahy, 1957. 248 p. $4.00 An absorbing story, wonderfully told, about a young Chinese Christian woman who overcame frightening physical handicaps and also persecution under the Communists; through reading the book one sees vividly the pressures, accusations and purges from inside Red China.

26. King, Beatrice Tannehill.
Moro Sheeba. Chicago, Moody, 1957. 228 p. $2.25 Biographical account of a Christian African's life and work in Arurland.

27. Uchida, Yoshiko.
The Full Circle. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 135 p. $2.50 The story of Umeko Kagawa, daughter of the world-famous Japanese evangelist, during World War II and after; charming insights into Dr. Kagawa's family and his work for the people.

See also: 60, 64.

C. GENERAL

28. Bankole, Thimothy.
Kwame Nkrumah; His Rise to Power. London, Allen & Unwin, 1955. 198 p. $3.75 Biography of the first Prime Minister of the Gold Coast, "his difficulties, his good qualities, his shortcomings and his philosophy of life", and an account of his share in the formation of the new nation of Ghana.

29. Descola, Jean.
The Conquistadors. Translated by Malcolm Barnes. N.Y., Viking, 1957. 404 p. $5.00 The story of the Spanish conquest of the New World told through the biographies of the successive leaders, Columbus, Cortes, Pizarro and Las Casas.

30. Kaizuka, Shigeki.
Confucius. Translated from the Japanese by Geoffrey Bownas. London, Allen & Unwin, (N.Y., Macmillan), 1956. 192 p. $3.00 Interesting biography of the Chinese sage by a Japanese scholar, translated for western readers; especially useful is the description of Confucius' times and the evaluation of his political philosophy.

31. Lewisohn, Ludwig, ed.
Theodor Herzl; a Portrait for This Age. N.Y., World, 1955. 345 p. $4.00 Following the editor's biographical essay, the life of this founder and guiding spirit of Zionism is portrayed through the medium of his writings and speeches.

32. Liu, Harry.
Chinaman's Chance. Chicago, Moody Press, 1956. 143 p. $2.50 The somewhat strange title introduces a thrilling biographical testimony by a young Chinese Christian who has been active in the work of the Pocket Testament League on the China mainland and in other countries of the Far East.

33. Macmillan, A. H.
Faith on the March. Englewood Cliffs, N.J., Prentice-Hall, 1957. 241 p. $2.95 A revealing story by a lifelong member of Jehovah's Witnesses, which helps us to understand the phenomenal growth and worldwide influence of this new sect.

34. Nemes, Joseph.
Signs in the Storm. London, Hodder and Stoughton, 1956. 189 p. 12/6 Autobiographical account of a Hungarian's stay in a Communist prison in Czechoslovakia, his escape to the West and his subsequent preparation for the ministry in New Zealand.

35. Nkrumah, Kwame.
Ghana. N.Y., Nelson, 1957. 302 p. $5.00 Autobiography of the Prime Minister of the new African nation.

36. Perham, Margery.
Lugard; the Years of Adventure, 1858-1898. London, Collins, 1956. 750 p. 42/- The first part of the life of Frederick Dealtry Lugard which began in the adventurous period of exploration and anti-slavery struggle in Africa; the history of the first occupation of Africa by chartered companies, and its climax in the creation of an official British administration.

37. Tolboom, Wanda Neill.
Arctic Bride. N.Y., Morrow, 1956. 256 p. $4.00 "The adventure and romance of a marriage in a lonely Northern outpost" which gives a vivid portrayal of life in the Arctic with Eskimo people.

38. Watt, W. Montgomery.
Muhammad at Medina. Oxford, England, Clarendon, 1956. 418 p. 42/- Continuing the study begun in MUHAMMAD AT MECCA, the author here deals with the second part of the career of Islam's founder. "Muhammad is portrayed as having remained sincere to the end of his life, and on this basis it is shown that the recorded details of his activities can be regarded as expressions of coherent, farseeing, and statesmanlike policies."

39. Wingate, Ronald.
Wingate of the Sudan. London, Murray, 1955. 274 p. 25/- "Throughout this book runs the theme of three great men, Cromer, Kitchener and Wingate, through whom modern Egypt and the modern Sudan took their rightful place as independent countries in Africa and the world." During Wingate's seventeen-years as Governor-General of the Sudan, his advice was often ignored by the governments of the world - only latterly has the wisdom of this advice been recognized.

See also: 78.

III. Lands of the Older Churches

A. EUROPE

40. Dallin, David J.
Soviet Espionage. New Haven, Conn., Yale University Press, 1956. 558 p. $5.75 This survey covers the history of the vast Soviet spy apparatus from the 1917 Revolution to the present.

41. Hromadka, J. L.
The Church and Theology in Today's Troubled Times. Prague, Czechoslovakia, Ecumenical Council of Churches in Czechoslovakia, 1956. 94 p. The relevancy of the Gospel to the world in which we live and particularly the situations in Germany and China; this booklet by the well-known European theologian calls for a responsible society to grapple with the urgent problems of our time. Definitely pro-Communist, a provocative contribution to ecumenical discussions today.

42. Jackson, Joseph H.
The Eternal Flame; the Story of a Preaching Mission in Russia. Philadelphia, Christian Education Press, 1956. 125 p. $2.50 A fascinating and informative report on the author's trip to Russia, his experiences with Baptist congregations in public meetings, worship services and person to person contacts which all contribute to a vivid picture of the ecumenical reality of Christianity today.

43. Mazour, Anatole G.
Finland Between East and West. N.Y., Van Nostrand, 1956. 298 p. $6.50 Finland, its struggle for survival and for recognition is portrayed in history and in the present time. The book sheds new light on a nation caught between the power struggle of East and West.

44. Platt, Raye R., ed.
Finland and its Geography. London, Methuen, 1957. 510 p. 60/- A detailed and useful handbook, put out by the American Geographical Society for the general reader, with basic information on Finnish geography, population, industry, etc., and many charts, pictures and maps.

45. Raymond, Jack.
New Era in Eastern Europe? (Headline Series, no. 122) N.Y., Foreign Policy Association, 1957. 62 p. $.35 Some pertinent questions about the latest developments behind the Iron Curtain.

46. Zinner, Paul E., ed.
National Communism and Popular Revolt in Eastern Europe; A Selection of Documents on Events in Poland and Hungary. N.Y., Columbia University Press, 1956. 563 p. $2.95 The dramatic developments of 1956 in Eastern Europe are made more intelligible through this lucid chronological narrative of events and the well-selected documents woven into it; a truly up-to-date production.

See also: 2, 23, 34, 77, 131.

B. NORTH AMERICA

47. De Coccola, Raymond, and King, Paul.
Ayorama. N.Y., Oxford University Press, 1956. 316 p. $4.50 Description of the rugged life of the Krangmalit Eskimos who live along the Central Arctic coast of Canada, told by a Roman Catholic missionary.

48. Evarts, Jeremiah.
Through the South and the West with Jeremiah Evarts in 1826. Edited by J. Orin Oliphant. Lewisburg, Pa., Bucknell University Press, 1956. 143 p. $2.60 Jeremiah Evarts was the editor of the Panoplist, predecessor to the Missionary Herald, and corresponding secretary for the A.B.C.F.M. Here are the "memoirs" which he kept during a six months trip through the southern states and west to the Mississippi.

See also: 8, 37, 262.

C. AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, SOUTH AFRICA

49. Bond, John.
They Were South Africans. Cape Town, London, N.Y., Oxford University Press, 1956. 224 p. 22/6 Stories of the English speaking people who helped to shape South Africa as it is today.

50. Kiewiet, C. W. de.
The Anatomy of the South African Misery. London, Oxford University Press, 1957. 87 p. Three lectures on the historical background of the South African Crisis, an evaluation of the apartheid movement, and a decisive and firm demand for a genuine African solution to the complex and difficult problem.

51. Kuper, Leo.
Passive Resistance in South Africa. New Haven, Conn., Yale University Press, 1957. 256 p. $3.50. Analysis of a Gandhi-like movement of resistance against laws regulating race relations, by a professor of sociology in the University of Natal.

See also: 139, 174, 268.

IV. Lands of the Younger Churches

A. JAPAN

52. Axling, William.
This is Japan. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 24 p. $.50 A noted missionary writes informingly about Japan - its lands and people, post-war trends and gains, the Christian sage yesterday and today and the nation's role in an awakened Asia.

53. Free Methodist Church, Woman's Missionary Society.
The Living Faith in Japan. Winona Lake, Ind., Light and Life, 1957. 95 p. A vivid report of the work of the missionaries of the Free Methodist Church in Japan.

54. Iglehart, Charles W.
Cross and the Crisis in Japan. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 166 p. $2.50 A fine book on Christianity in Japan, its growth and influence today, by a former missionary and professor of missions; also statistical tables on Christian work and a reading list for further study.

55. Ito, N.
Six Years of Democratization. Tokyo, Japan Study Peace Group, 1955. 243 p. $2.50 Japan's many-sided progress in democracy under Allied occupation (to the end of 1952) interpreted by a Japanese historian; a useful book but marred by some grammatical errors and misprints.

56. Johnson, Katharine.
In Our Time, 1947-1957. N.Y., Interboard Committee for Christian Work in Japan, 1957. 80 p. "Ten Years of Experience in Cooperative Program of Christian Advance in Japan."

57. Latourette, Kenneth Scott.
The History of Japan. rev. ed. N.Y., Macmillan, 1957. 299 p. $5.00 This revised edition incorporates all important developments since World War II.

58. McCartney, Hazel Severson.
In the Gray Rain. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 246 p. $3.25 A missionary with seven years' experience in Japan writes perceptively and sympathetically about the people there in a series of attractive sketches; illustrated with exquisite drawings.

59. Nielsen, Niels C., Jr.
Religion and Philosophy in Contemporary Japan. (The Rice Institute Pamphlet, v. 43, no. 4) Houston, Texas, Rice Institute, 1957. 132 p. Monograph based on studies and researches undertaken by the author in 1956 which gives a contemporary view of the major philosophical and religious trends in post-war Japan.

60. Prichard, Marianna, and Norman.
Ten Against the Storm. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 164 p. $2.50 Story of the growth of the Christian movement in Japan with a spotlight on the lives of ten Japanese men and women representative of Protestant Christianity since 1859.

61. Takaya, M., comp. and ed.
The Letters of Dr. J. C. Hepburn. Tokyo, Privately printed, 1955. 258 p. Selection of more than a hundred letters written by the pioneer Presbyterian missionary and scholar in Japan, from 1859 to 1892; with brief annotations in Japanese.

62. Toyotaka, Komiya, ed.
Japanese Music and Drama in the Meiji Era. Translated by Seidenstricker, E. G. and others. (Centenary Culture Council Series). Tokyo, Obunsha, 1956. 535 p. Third volume in the series of English translations describing the culture of the Meiji Era (1868-1912).

63. Yanaga, Chitoshi.
Japanese People and Politics. N.Y., John Wiley, 1956. 408 p. $7.50 Examination of Japanese government and politics, using Japanese source materials. The author evaluates Japanese achievements objectively in the light of Western criteria.

See also: 27, 190, 209, 245, 262.

B. KOREA

64. Campbell, Arch.
The Christ of the Korean Heart. Columbus, Ohio, Falco, 1954. 144 p. $2.00 True stories of Korean Christians, faithful and brave in war and persecution, told by a veteran Presbyterian missionary.

See also: 262, 276.

C. CHINA - INCLUDING TAIWAN (FORMOSA)

65. Boorman, Howard L. and others.
Moscow-Peking Axis; Strengths and Strains. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 227 p. $3.50 Four first-class scholars present a brilliant analysis of Soviet and Chinese Communist relations, "the most important new political fact in world politics since 1949;" the political impact, the economic pattern, the ideological alliance, the effect on the borderlands and on world politics. Indispensable to modern students of the Far East.

66. Cary-Elwes, Columba, O.S.B.
China and the Cross. N.Y., Kennedy, 1957. 323 p. $3.95 Dom Columba, Roman Catholic theologian and writer, has produced a well-written and very useful survey of missionary history in China from the seventh century to the present Communist period. Roman Catholic missions are given the major emphasis but there are sections also on Protestant missions with an evaluation that is both appreciative and critical.

67. Chen, Cheng-siang.
The City of Taipei. (Research Report, no. 71). Taipei, Taiwan, Fu-min Geographical Institute of Economic Development, 1956. 36 p. Sociological research on the capital city of Taiwan (Formosa), well illustrated and provided with maps.

68. Chen, C. S., and others.
Climatic Classification and Climatic Regions in China. (Research Report, no. 68). Taipei, Taiwan, Fu-min Geographical Institute of Economic Development, 1956. 56 p. In Chinese language, with English summary.

69. Cheng, Yu-kwei.
Foreign Trade and Industrial Development of China: An Historical and Integrated Analysis Through 1948. Washington, University Press of Washington, D.C., 1956. 278 p. $7.00 This study by one of China's leading economists furnishes a valuable survey and analysis of China's economic development from the 16th century (and especially since 1840) to the inception of the Communist Government. An excellent piece of work.

70. Chiang, Kai-shek.
Soviet Russia in China. N.Y., Farrar, Straus and Cudahy, 1957. 392 p. $5.00 Generalissimo Chiang presents his version of China's tumultuous years from 1924 to the Communist victory of 1949, and the reasons for his implacable opposition to Communist theory and strategy. This quiet "Summing-up at Seventy" is important both for what is said and what is omitted.

71. Free Methodist Church, Woman's Missionary Society.
Entering the Open Door in Formosa. Winona Lake, Ind., Light and Life, 1956. 92 p. Study book based upon factual reports by the missionaries of the Free Methodist Church.

72. Hsia, Tao-tai.
China's Language Reforms. New Haven, Conn., Yale University Institute of Foreign Languages, 1956. 200 p. Indispensable reference for students of the Chinese language, giving full information about the simplified forms of Chinese characters and new Latinization plan being introduced by the Communist Government.

73. Lehmann, Emily.
Bambus zerbricht nicht am Sturm. Wuppertal, Brockhaus, 1956. 246 p. DM 6.37 A fictionalized account of experiences in a new China when young Christians, caught between tradition and social-radicalism, try to seek their own way in honesty and sincerity.

74. Li, Chien-nung.
The Political History of China 1840-1928. Edited and translated by Ssu-ye Teng and Jeremy Ingalls. Princeton, N.J., Van Nostrand, 1956. 545 p. $7.50 English translation of an excellent college textbook (published in Shanghai) dealing with a century of government and international relations; Chinese history through Chinese eyes.

75. Roy, Claude.
Into China. (Translated from the French by Mervyn Savill). N.Y., McBride, 1956. 420 p. $4.95 Strongly partisan account of a visit to Red China, yet many passages of keen insight and poetic beauty.

76. Thompson, May Bel.
Chinese Teen-Agers - and God! N.Y., Vantage, 1956. 206 p. $2.75 An American Methodist missionary to West China during the difficult and dangerous years of the Japanese invasion tells of her experiences with youth in a refugee high school and uses excerpts from their letters and essays to illustrate growth in Christian faith and outlook; an attractive story.

77. Wei, Henry.
China and Soviet Russia. Princeton, N.J., Van Nostrand, 1956. 379 p. $7.75 A brilliant Chinese scholar traces the complex story of Sino-Soviet relations from 1917 through 1952, and throws light upon many puzzling and controversial questions; a work of objective scholarship and absorbing interest.

78. Wu, Eugene.
Leaders of Twentieth-Century China. Stanford, Calif., Stanford University Press, 1956. 106 p. A conveniently arranged annotated bibliography of selected Chinese biographical works in the Hoover Library; names and titles in both Chinese and English.

See also: 6, 14, 20, 25, 30, 32, 41, 78, 89, 110, 111, 186, 188, 198, 244, 262, 282.

D. SOUTHEAST ASIA
(BURMA, INDO-CHINA, INDONESIA, MALAYA, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS, THAILAND)

79. Allen, G. C., and Donnithorne, Audrey G.
Western Enterprise in Indonesia and Malaya; a Study in Economic Development. London, N.Y., Macmillan, 1957. 321 p. 25/- An examination of various types of business undertakings by the West in relation to regional developments; the survey covers the period from the early part of this century to the nineteen fifties with a special emphasis on the period following World War II.

80. Barham, Marie.
Onak and the Talking Box. Chicago, Moody, 1957. 189 p. $3.00 A young pioneer missionary of the C.I.M. Overseas Missionary Fellowship describes in gripping story form new work among primitive tribes of the Philippines.

81. Free Methodist Church, Woman's Missionary Society.
Lighting the Philippine Frontier. Winona Lake, Ind., Light and Life, 1957. 96 p. A report of the work of the Free Methodist Church in the Philippines presented by its missionaries.

82. Han, Suyin.
...and the Rain My Drink. Boston, Toronto, Little, Brown, 1956. 306 p. $4.00 A loosely constructed yet absorbing novel of the Malay Peninsula: city and jungle, the "Outside" world of Singapore, the "Inside" world of the Communist guerillas, the "new villages," conflicting races and ideologies and personalities, the old and the new, the yearning for freedom - described in a style as profuse and varied as that of the Malayan forests and with deep insight and sympathy.

83. Human Relations Area Files.
North Borneo Brunei Sarawak (British Borneo). (Country Survey Series). New Haven, Conn., 1956. 287 p. $7.00 Survey on British Borneo with a systematic arrangement of materials available in this country; excellent statistical data and charts.

84. Kin, On.
Cruising Down the Irrawaddy. Rangoon, Burma, Thudhama Press, 1956. 78 p. Account of the inner conflict in post-war Burma.

85. King, John Kerry.
South East Asia in Perspective. N.Y., Macmillan, 1956. 309 p. $5.00 United States interest in South East Asia, the conditions under which the U.S. must operate, major contours of U.S. policies, and the problems which have to be faced, put forth by the author with conclusions and recommendations.

86. Maung Maung.
Burma in the Family of Nations. Amsterdam, Netherlands, Djambatan (International Educational Publishing House), 1956. 236 p. $4.50 The history of Burma as an independent kingdom, the impact of the West upon her, subjugation by the British and the more recent changes culminating in the Japanese invasion and subsequent liberation and independence.

87. McIntosh, Amy.
Journey Into Malaya. London, Lutterworth, 1956. 190 p. A novelette based upon the life and work of China Inland Mission overseas missionaries in the "New Villages" of Malaya, and upon trials and victories of the Church there.

88. Netherlands Institute of International Affairs.
Indonesia in 1956; Political and Economic Aspects. N.Y., Institute of Pacific Relations, 1957. 92 p. $1.50 Short objective survey, prepared by two Dutch scholars under the direction of B. H. M. Vlekke, which tries not to advocate any particular policy.

89. O'Rourke, Eileen J., ed.
Vibrant Chords. Philadelphia, Toronto, C.I.M. Overseas Missionary Fellowship, 1957. 63 p. $.50 Well-written true stories of the new work in Southeast Asia carried on by the China Inland Mission Overseas Fellowship. One short chapter, "Lost Chords," about the China mainland.

90. Pye, Lucian W.
Guerilla Communism in Malaya. Princeton, N.J., Princeton University Press, 1956. 369 p. $6.00 A case study of the Malayan Communist Party as representative of "People's Liberation Communism" in underdeveloped areas, based upon revealing interviews with "surrendered enemy personnel;" highly praised by political scientists.

91. Trager, Frank N., and others.
Burma's Role in the United Nations, 1948-1955. N.Y., Institute of Pacific Relations, 1956. 100 p. $1.50 Burma's role in the UN as an uncommitted, anti-colonial and underdeveloped nation; contains statistical charts, documents submitted to the General Assembly and bibliography of UN documents relating to Burma.

92. Vandenbosh, Amry, and Butwell, Richard A.
South East Asia Among the World Powers. Lexington, University of Kentucky Press, 1957. 336 p. $6.00 Analysis of developments in Indonesia, the Philippines, Indochina, Thailand, Malaya, and Burma against their historical background, with a final chapter devoted to the American approach to South East Asia problems.

93. Wittenbach, H. A.
Malaya. (Working Together, no. 4) London, Highway, 1957. 35 p. 2/- Brief history of the Malayan Church since the Japanese occupation and an outline of the Church's working program for social and economic development as well as for theological education.

See also: 13, 185, 187, 196, 202, 204, 205, 221, 224, 229.

E. PACIFIC

94. Dupeyrat, André.
Festive Papua. Translated from the French by Erik de Mauny. London, Staples, 1956. 162 p. 15/- Report on the life and customs of the Papuans by a Roman Catholic missionary with special reference to the ritual festival of the Gabé, the festival of the pig.

95. Fischer, John L.
The Eastern Carolines. (Behavior Science Monographs). New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1957. 274 p. $6.50 Handbook on contemporary scientific information on the Truk and Ponape Districts.

96. Lind, Andrew W.
Hawaii's People. Honolulu, University of Hawaii Press, 1955. 116 p. $2.75 This study of race relations in Hawaii by a sociology professor contains accurate statistical data about what had happened during a century of racial contact and association. Also non-technical, informative material on the life of Hawaii's people.

F. SOUTHERN ASIA (CEYLON, INDIA, NEPAL, PAKISTAN)

97. American Friends Service Committee.
Social and Technical Assistance in India. Philadelphia, 1956. 96 + 93 p. A mimeographed interim report to the International Cooperation Administration of the U.S.A., 1951-1956, of social and technical assistance projects carried on by the American Friends Service Committee in Rasulia and Barpali, India.

98. Day, Gardiner M.
Glimpses of India. Cambridge, Mass., Privately printed, 1956. 32 p. A few impressions the author had on his trip to India in the summer of 1956.

99. Farmer, B. H.
Pioneer Peasant Colonization in Ceylon; a Study in Asian Agrarian Problems. London, N.Y., Toronto, Oxford University Press, 1957. 387 p. 55/- Study of the more recent efforts by the Government of Ceylon to encourage colonization by peasant cultivators in the largely desert Dry Zone of the island.

100. Glad, William.
Jungelfolket Reiser Seg. Oslo, Santalmisjonens Forlag, 1955. 283 p. History of the uprising in Santal, India, in 1855.

101. Human Relations Area Files.
Pakistan: Society and Culture. Stanley Maron, ed. (Behavior Science Monographs). New Haven, Conn., 1957. 192 p. $3.50 Essays by various experts on social, economic and cultural problems of this important Muslim nation.

102. Humayun Kabir.
Education in New India. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 208 p. $2.75 India's attempt to expand her educational facilities and improve her educational system; report on various experiments.

103. Lal, A. B.
The Indian Parliament. Allahabad, India, Chaitanya, 1956. 296 p. Rs. 15 Discussion of various aspects of the Indian Parliament by several experts, most of them teachers at the Allahabad University.

104. Morris-Jones, W. H.
Parliament in India. Philadelphia, University of Pennsylvania Press, 1957. 417 p. $8.50 Study of India's main political institution, its development during the later stages of British rule, and a careful consideration of the distinctive features of Indian democracy.

105. Nepal, Government.
Draft Five Year Plan; a Synopsis. Kathmandu, 1956. 82 p. A practical government program for economic and social development in Nepal.

106. Radhkrishnan, S.
Occasional Speeches and Writings; October 1952-January 1956. Delhi, Government of India, 1956. $3.00 Speeches and writings on various occasions during the past four years by India's Vice President.

107. Unnithan, T. K. N.
Gandhi and Free India. Groningen, Netherlands, Wolters, 1956. 266 p. $4.00 A socio-economic analysis of the problems of the Indian society and of the contribution that Gandhian ideas have made towards a solution of these problems.

108. Useem, John and Ruth.
The Western Educated Man in India; a Study of his Social Roles and Influence. N.Y., Dryden, 1955. 237 p. $3.00 The findings of a field investigation group on the influence of Western education in India; also practical suggestions--based upon the findings--for exchange programs between countries which should be very helpful to those who direct such programs.

See also: 4, 9, 18, 19, 24, 119, 120, 192, 193, 239, 263.

G. CENTRAL ASIA

109. Barthold, V. V.
Four Studies on the History of Central Asia. Translated from the Russian by V. and T. Minorsky. v. 1. Leiden, Netherlands, Brill, 1956. 183 p. Gld. 15 This volume contains the first two of four studies, a short history of Turkestan, and a history of the Semirechye.

110. Ford, Robert.
Wind Between the Worlds. N.Y., McKay, 1957. 338 p. $4.50 The adventuresome experiences of the radio officer at the British Mission in Lhasa who refused to abandon his post when the Chinese Reds invaded Tibet in 1950 and who was a prisoner for five years of the Chinese Reds, until his final trial and release.

111. Patterson, George N.
God's Fool. London, Faber and Faber, 1956. 251 p. 18/- In this sequel to Tibetan Journey George Patterson, a medical evangelical missionary of the Plymouth Brethren persuasion tells of his spiritual vissions and struggles before and after he went to China, then through Tibet to India. His peculiar views on missions and on Communism as fulfillment of Biblical prophecy make the book an unusual story.

112. Schram, Louis M., C.I.C.M.
The Monguors of the Kansu-Tibetan Border. Part 2, Their Religious Life. (Transactions of the American Philosophical Society, N.S., v. 47, part 1) Philadelphia, American Philosophical Society, 1957. 164 p. $3.00 This study, based upon local chronicles and other original sources deals with the historical framework within which Lamaism spread in the region of Huangchung and gives insights into manifold aspects of the Lamaist religion.

See also: 120, 191.

113. Bagley, F. R. C.
Arabs and the Middle East. (Behind the Headlines, v. 16, no. 1) Toronto, Canadian Institute of International Affairs, 1956. 21 p. $.20 The author is Assistant Professor at the Institute of Islamic Studies, McGill University, and has served in the U.K. consular service at Baghdad and Isfahan. He provides a thumbnail sketch of the Arab countries of the Middle East as introduction to further study and reading.

114. Baldwin, Hanson W.
Middle East in Turmoil. N.Y., Foreign Policy Association, 1957. 62 p. $.35 The military analyst of the N.Y. Times appraises problems and prospects in the Middle East crisis.

115. Cunningham, Robert J.
A Thumbnail Sketch of North and Northeast Africa; a Contemporary Survey of the Peoples and the Church. (World Horizon Reports, no. 16) Maryknoll, N.Y., Maryknoll, 1956. 48 p. Includes religious and Roman Catholic missionary statistics for North Africa and Egypt.

116. Dib, G. Moussa.
The Arab Bloc in the United Nations. Amsterdam, Netherlands, Djambatan (International Educational Publishing House), 1956. 128 p. 20/- A discussion of the sources, present condition, problems and potentials of Arab Unity; and a survey of the Arab nations' participation in the United Nations. Somewhat biased and contains some questionable interpretations and faulty information in spots.

117. Eban, Abba.
Voice of Israel. N.Y., Horizon, 1957. 304 p. $3.95 Eloquent chronicle of the young nation which is in the focus of present world history by her ambassador to the United States.

118. Ellis, Harry B.
Heritage of the Desert; the Arabs and the Middle East. N.Y., Ronald, 1956. 311 p. $5.00 A careful description of all classes of Arabs, from desert nomads to King Saud, by the Middle East correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor.

119. Fairman, Marion and Edwin.
The Tumbling Walls. Philadelphia, United Presbyterian Church, Board of Foreign Missions, 1957. 192 p. A mission-minded pastor, and his wife, visit mission fields of the U.P. Church in North Africa and Pakistan, and report their observations and impressions; a book of discerning insights, well-written.

120. Field, Henry.
Ancient and Modern Man in Southwestern Asia. Coral Gables, Fla., University of Miami Press, 1956. 342 p. $8.50 The area included in this study extends "from the Suez Canal to West Pakistan border and from the central part of the Caucasus Mountains to the Arabian Sea." Included in this detailed anthropogeographical study of Stone Age Man and his cultures are extensive anthropometric, statistical, and archeological tables. Comparative data on living peoples is part of the scholarly work.

121. Jackson, H. C.
Behind the Modern Sudan. London, Macmillan (N.Y., St. Martin's Press), 1955. 226 p. $4.75 Behind the modern Sudan are the difficulties and dangers which were faced by innumerable British officials and officers during the last fifty years; of these and other events this book is a record, delightfully written.

122. Kedourie, Elie.
England and the Middle East; the Destruction of the Ottoman Empire, 1914-1921. London, Bowes & Bowes, 1956. 236 p. 30/- British policy in the Middle East, prior to 1914, was based upon the "independence and integrity of the Ottoman Empire." A hasty scramble, which resulted in a radical change of policy, was occasioned by the First World War and the struggle against the Ottoman Empire. Based upon an impressive group of papers and archives, this author discusses the causes and results of this revolution in policy. He includes a discussion of the intellectual foundation on which this change was based.

123. Lilienthal, Alfred M.
There Goes the Middle East. N.Y., Devin-Adair, 1957. 300 p. $4.00 A frankly pro-Arab analysis of the tensions, problems and misunderstandings which characterize the Middle East and the U.S. policy in this area. The author feels that the Arab refugee situation continues to be the key to the conflicts, and indicates that Christian-Jewish relations, rather than the best interests of the United States, have molded American opinion.

134. Wilber, Donald N., ed.
Afghanistan. (Country Survey Series). New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1956. 501 p. $8.75 The aim of this publication and others in the series is to promote "a general understanding of the peoples of the world, their ways of life, their problems, values, and ideas." This thorough and scholarly study is the work of several eminent authorities and includes a valuable bibliography of additional material.

135. Wint, Guy, and Calvocoressi, Peter.
Middle East Crisis. (A Penguin Special, no. S167). Harmondsworth, Middlesex, England, Penguin, 1957. 141 p. $.50 A brief but careful study of the events which preceded the Near East crisis, and of the happenings in 1956, with a discussion of possible future policies for Western nations.

136. Wohlfahrt, Magret und Eberhard.
Nordafrika; Tunesien, Algerien, Marokko. Berlin, Safari, 1955. 772 p. DM 16.80 An excellent description of the North African "powder kegg", presented with up-to-date photos, charts, and a fine map showing the modern communication system.

137. Ziadeh, Nicola A.
Syria and Lebanon. London, Ernest Benn, 1957. 312 p. 30/- Another volume in the Nations of the Modern World Series; a professor of the American University of Beirut gives valuable historical background for better understanding of these two Levant states.

See also: 5, 31, 38, 39, 200, 203.

I. AFRICA

138. Akpan, Ntieyong U.
Epitaph to Indirect Rule; a Discourse on Local Government in Africa. London, Cassel, 1956. 204 p. 12/6 Study in the developments in government in Nigeria, the background which led to the present reforms, the old system of indirect rule as well as the new form of a democratic self-government.

139. Brookes, Edgar H., and Hurwitz, N.
The Native Reserves of Natal. (Natal Regional Survey, v. 7). Capetown, London, N.Y., Oxford University Press, 1957. 195 p. 37/6 "This study of the Natal Reserves is published as a part of the Natal Regional Survey undertaken by the University of Natal. It supplements the valuable ninth report of the Social and Economic Planning Council...to which it adds much more detail on the reserves of Natal and Zululand, together with the result of other research undertaken since the Planning Council reported in 1946."

140. Christian Council of the Gold Coast.
Christianity and African Culture. Accra, Gold Coast, 1955. 80 p. 2/- "The proceedings of a conference held at Accra, Gold Coast, May 2nd-6th, 1955, under the auspices of the Christian Council."

141. Davidson, Basil.
The African Awakening. London, Jonathan Cape, 1955. 262 p. 12/6 The African awakening seen as one of the fundamental movements of humanity toward the unity of the human race, and described against the background of the great central region formed by the Belgian Congo, the French Congo and the Portuguese colony of Angola.

142. Formation Religieuse en Afrique Noire. (Compte Rendu de la Semaine d'études de Léopoldville, 22-27 août 1955). Bruxelles, Belgium, Lumen Vitae, 1956. 430 p. Bel.Fr. 176 A report, which includes the speeches and discussions, of a Roman Catholic conference on the religious life of the African peoples. The subjects covered include: the traditional religious practices of Africa, the impact of Christianity on many areas of African life, religious education, and the religious life as found in several Roman Catholic organizations - J.O.C., Boy Scouts, and the Legion of Mary.

143. Gelfand, Michael.
Medicine and Magic of the Mashona. Capetown, S.A., Juta, 1956. 266 p. 25/- Firsthand study of African tribal custom in general, and especially the influence of magic and medical practice upon the lives of the people of Mashonaland.

144. Hodgkin, Thomas.
Nationalism in Colonial Africa. London, Frederick Muller, 1956. 216 p. 10/6 A thorough analysis as well as some pertinent observations suggested by the author as a working hypothesis and basis for discussion of the present state and future prospects of African nationalism.

145. International African Institute.
Linguistic Survey of the Northern Bantu Borderland. 2 v. (v.2 by Irvine Richardson). London, N.Y., Toronto, Oxford University Press, 1956. 146 + 95 p. 32/6 + 25/- A summary report of the field study carried out by the research team, with demographic and geographical data, classification, and maps; also the first of three linguistic analyses, that of the Western area, to be followed by the studies of the Central (Belgian Congo) and Eastern sections.

146. International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.
The Economic Development of Nigeria. Baltimore, Md., Johns Hopkins, 1955. 686 p. $7.50 Report of a mission which was organized at the request of the Governments of Nigeria and the United Kingdom, including recommendations for improvements in major fields of economics, sixteen maps and numerous charts and tables documenting the findings of the report.

147. Jackson, I. C.
Advance in Africa; a Study of Community Development in Eastern Nigeria. London, Oxford University Press, 1956. 110 p. $1.20 The story of community development in Eastern Nigeria as an inspiration for similar programs in other underdeveloped parts of the world.

148. Jopp, Keith.
Ghana, 1957. Accra, Ghana, Department of Information Service, 1957. 48 p. Handy information on the geography, history, traditions, culture, and economics of this new nation of Africa, well illustrated.

149. Lambert, H. E.
Kikuyu Social and Political Institutions. London, N.Y., Toronto, Oxford University Press, 1956. 149 p. $2.40 Study of the age-old organizations which constitute the framework within which the life of every Kikuyu is regulated.

150. Lavignotte, Henri.
Ces Hommes ont Peur. Valence-sur-Rhône, Imprimeries Réunies, 1956. 112 p. The author has lived for thirty years in Africa. He tries to explain the psychology and philosophy of fear which typifies the native African; he describes the effect of Western civilization; and discusses some of the answers which can be given to these people through an understanding of their terrors and an approach to them in terms of the Gospel of Love.

151. Lawrence, J. C. D.
The Iteso; Fifty Years of Change in a Nilo-Hamitic Tribe of Uganda. London, Oxford University Press, 1957. 280 p. 36/- Survey on the second largest tribe in Uganda with an excellent description of the more recent changes and developments during the period of close contact with the West.

152. Marie-André, Soeur du Sacré-Coeur.
Civilisations en Marche. Paris, Bernard Grasset, 1956. 252 p. FFr. 400 This member of the White Sisters, after several months in French West Africa and French Equitorial Africa, writes sympathetically and penetratingly of the evolution taking place in African civilization. Out of close contact with the indigenous population, she describes the positive values of the past which are being retained and the transformations resulting from the rapid social changes of this area.

153. Matthews, J. M.
South of the River. London, Carey Kingsgate, 1956. 160 p. 7/6 The work in the Lingungu Baptist Missionary station fifty miles south of the Congo among the Topoke people.

154. Mitchell, J. Clyde.
The Kalela Dance. (The Rhodes-Livingstone Papers, no. 27). Manchester, England, University of Manchester, 1956. 52 p. 7/6 "Aspects of social relationships among Urban Africans in Northern Rhodesia."

155. Padmore, George.
Pan-Africanism or Communism? N.Y., Roy, 1957. 463 p. $5.00 The author's contention is that the issue in the coming struggle for Africa will be between Pan-Africanism and Communism; he traces the background of the modern Negro political movements in general as well as the political and constitutional development in the Gold Coast and in Nigeria in particular and holds that the African problem can only be solved by forming a common citizenship for all races.

156. Read, Margaret.
The Ngoni of Nyasaland. London, N.Y., Toronto, Oxford University Press, 1956. 212 p. 35/-
The material of this study was collected during three periods of research in Nyasaland under the auspices of the International African Institute and presents a picture of an aristocratic tribal society twenty years ago.

157. Strong, Tracy.
Africa is Here; Report on Journeys in Africa South of the Sahara, December 1954-June 1955 and October 1955-May 1956. Geneva, Switzerland, World Alliance of YMCA's, 1956. 84 p. This report of two trips on behalf of the World Alliance is intended to serve as "a basis for further consultations regarding the extension and expansion of the YMCA Movement in the continent of Africa."

158. Syrdal, Rolf A.
Mission in Madagascar. Minneapolis, Minn., Augsburg, 1957. 48 p. $1.25 Basically a study book on Lutheran missions, this brief pictorial and narrative survey relates the basic facts of Lutheran work in this island, and includes historical material relative to the Malagasy Lutheran Church.

See also: 1, 3, 5, 15, 21, 22, 26, 28, 35, 36, 49, 50, 51, 195, 201, 222, 268.

J. LATIN AMERICA AND THE WEST INDIES

159. Diaz del Castillo, Bernal.
The Discovery and Conquest of Mexico, 1517-1521. Edited from the only exact copy of the original MS (and published in Mexico) by Genaro Garcia. Translated with an introduction and notes by A. P. Maudslay. N.Y., Farrar, Straus and Cudahy, 1956. 478 p. $5.00 "The true story of the conquest of Mexico."

160. Easton, Wilfred.
Western Windows. London, Cargate, n.d. 74 p. 3/6 Picture of British Methodism and its work in the West Indies.

161. Hutchinson, Harry William.
Village and Plantation Life. Seattle, Wash., University of Washington Press, 1957. 199 p. $3.50
This monograph, from the research and training program for the study of man in the tropics by the American Ethnological Society, deals with the Negro, Indian, and white community of Vila Recôncavo, in the sugar-producing region of Bahia, Brazil.

162. Comité Cooperativo de las Misiones Rurales y el Comité de Cooperacion en la América Latina.
Informe de la asamblea evangelica interamericana da obra rural. Mexico, D.F., Casa unida de publicationes, 1956. Report of the Rural Life Conference held in Costa Rica April 10-13, 1956.

163. Pierson, William W., and Gil, Federico G.
Governments of Latin America. N.Y., McGraw-Hill, 1957. 514 p. $6.50 The forms of organization, functions and operations of the governments of the twenty republics of Latin America are presented in a topical and comparative approach; unusually good insights into the church and state relations are provided. Bibliographies at the end of each chapter and a glossary of terms add to the usefulness of this important book.

164. Plaza, Galo.
Problems of Democracy in Latin America. Chapel Hill, N.C., University of North Carolina Press, 1955. 88 p. $2.50 A comparison of North and South America, the experiment of a democracy in Ecuador and an analysis of democracy in Latin America, past and future.

165. Quarry, John.
The Land and the People of the West Indies. (Lands and Peoples Series). London, Black, 1956. 84 p. 7/6
Concise information about the richness and variety of the islands of the Caribbean; an appendix with useful facts and figures as well as photographs and a map.

166. Roberts, George W.
The Population of Jamaica. Cambridge, England, Cambridge University Press, 1957. 356 p. 40/-
Formal demographic analysis of Jamaica: study of population dynamics in an underdeveloped area, the growth of population, changes in internal distribution and external migration, as well as the main features of the population structure.

167. Smith, Bradley.
Escape to the West Indies. N.Y., Knopf, 1956. 397 p. $4.95 A beautifully illustrated guidebook to the islands of the Caribbean.

168. School of Inter-American Studies.
The Caribbean: Its Political Problems. A. Curtis Wilgus, ed. (Caribbean Conference Series, v.6)
Gainesville, Fla., University of Florida Press, 1956. 324 p. $4.50 Collection of essays on the current political scene in the Caribbean area by various experts.

169. Thomas, Alfred Barnaby.
Latin America; a History. N.Y., Macmillan, 1956. 801 p. $6.50 A survey history stressing the continuous flow of Latin American culture and the manifold contributions coming from the Indian civilizations as well as the strong European influences which shaped a distinctive American civilization.

170. Tucker, William P.
The Mexican Government Today. Minneapolis, Minn., University of Minnesota Press, 1957. 484 p. $6.50 Important aspects of the structure and function of the national government, internal and external relations, with a final evaluating chapter on the progress of the Mexican government and society as a developing democracy.

See also: 17, 29, 182.

K. NORTH AMERICAN INDIANS

171. Densmore, Frances.
Seminole Music. (Smithonian Institution Bureau of American Ethnology, Bulletin 161). Washington, D.C., Government Printing Office, 1956. 223 p. $1.00 Seminole social life and customs including 243 songs for various occasions and purposes.

172. Ladd, John.
The Structure of a Moral Code; a Philosophical Analysis of Ethical Discourse Applied to the Ethics of the Navaho Indians. Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1957. 474 p. $8.00 Philosophical analysis of Navaho ethics based upon field work among the Navaho Indians. With the help of analytical ethics which uses discourse and the logic of imperatives a theory of moral codes is developed.

173. LaFarge, Oliver.
A Pictorial History of the American Indian. N.Y., Crown, 1956. 272 p. $7.50 History of the Indians of North America from the time of the early settlers to the present with 350 illustrations including many color plates.

L. AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND ABORIGINES

174. Harney, W. E.
Life Among the Aborigines. London, Robert Hale, 1957. 219 p. 18/- The author is a recognized authority on the aboriginal peoples of Australia; he lived with them for many years, and served as a patrol officer in the Native Administration of the Northern Territory. He describes the great culture and social organization developed within the limits of the aboriginal environment, and the advances once more being made following the destructive contact with other civilizations.

M. JEWS (excluding Israel; see NEAR EAST)

N. FIELDS, GENERAL

175. Borsodi, Ralph.
The Challenge of Asia; a Study of Conflicting Ideas and Ideals. Melbourne, Fla., Melbourne University Press, 1956. 237 p. $3.50 Based on a visit to eleven Asian nations and a discovery of the ideas which today motivate the Asian peoples, the book is an analysis of these Asian ideas, a diagnosis of what is right and wrong with them, and a forthright criticism of American policy.

176. Chapman, B. Burgoyne.
Roving in a Changing World. Sidney, Australia, Scripts Proprietary, 1956. 318 p. The incredibly rich experiences of a man active in many fields, travelling in many countries, whose personal narrative shows the influence of his Christian convictions particularly in the education-movement in the Far East and in the Scout-movement in China, Japan, India, California, Australia and Israel.

177. Dain, A. J., ed.
Mission Fields Today; a Brief World Survey. London, Inter-Varsity Fellowship, 1956. 126 p. 4/-
A very sketchy survey of present day conditions throughout the world as general background for missionary opportunities and problems.

178. Ross, Albion.
Journey of an American. Indianapolis, N.Y., Bobbs-Merrill, 1957. 346 p. $4.50 "A highly personal account of our age by a New York Times correspondent who sought in a quarter of a century of wandering through many nations to comprehend the restlessness of modern mankind and the nomadism and rootlessness that was his heritage as an American."

179. Strausz-Hupé, Robert, and others, eds.
American-Asian Tensions. (Foreign Policy Research Institute Series, University of Pennsylvania, no. 3) N.Y., Praeger, 1956. 239 p. $3.75 Based on the foreign relations between the United States and five Asian countries (India, Indonesia, Japan, the Philippines, and Egypt), this study examines the tensions which the editors see as a reflection of an incompatible foreign policy. The illustrations point up strains which can arise in three types of relationships: with "neutralists", with committed allies, and with non-cooperating countries.

180. Ward, Barbara.
The Interplay of East and West; Points of Conflict and Co-operation. N.Y., Norton, 1957. 152 p. $3.50 Another provocative book from the pen of the contributing editor of THE ECONOMIST (London); this study "examines the past relationships between the civilizations, (and) suggests policies for the West."

181. A World on the Move; a History of Colonialism and Nationalism in Asia and North Africa from the Turn of the Century to the Bandung Conference. Amsterdam, Netherlands, Djambatan (International Educational Publishing House), 1956. 264 p. 675 illustrations make this pictorial history a convincing, though often gruesome, record of the impact of two great forces upon Asian and Near East societies.

V. Works of Reference

A. MISSIONS

182. Gibbons, William J., S.J., and Research Associates.
Basic Ecclesiastical Statistics for Latin America, 1956. Maryknoll, N.Y., World Horizon Reports, 1956. 62 p. $.75 A complete compilation of Roman Catholic statistics for the Western Hemisphere south of the Rio Grande, including the Caribbean area. Each country is sub-divided into its ecclesiastical provinces. The information includes data on education, population, clerics, parishes, churches and several other categories of ecclesiastical statistics.

183. Southern Baptist Convention, Foreign Mission Board, Department of Missionary Education.
Directory of Missionary Personnel. Richmond, Va., 1957. 54 p. Complete listing of the 1,113 active missionaries in service of the Foreign Mission Board and also the emeritus missionary personnel.

184. Svensk Missions Atlas. Stockholm, Svenska Missionsrådet, 1957. 48 p. SwKr.27 An historical and statistical atlas of Swedish mission work. The maps locate each mission station.

B. YEARBOOKS AND DIRECTORIES

185. Burma Christian Council.
Directory of Christian Service in Burma, 1956-57. Rangoon, 1957. 84 p. The third edition of the familiar directory, including three maps illustrating a summary survey of Burma and the Christian Church in Burma, also a section entitled "This is Burma."

186. China Handbook, 1955-56. Taipei, Taiwan, China Publishing Co., 1955. 851 p. Most recent edition of the familiar handbook.

187. Cressy, Earl Herbert.
City Churches in East Asia. (Study no. 3 and 4), City Churches in Thailand and City Churches in the Philippines. Hong Kong and Claremont, Calif., Privately printed, 1956. 8 p. + 43 p. $1.00 Continuation of the survey of Asian city churches by the former Associate General Secretary, National Christian Council of China.

188. Directory of Taiwan, 1957. Taipei, Taiwan, China News & Publication Service, 1957. 254 p. TW$25.00 ($1.00) Very useful reference source which gives, especially in its second part, much general information helpful to the general reader and student as well as to the traveler.

189. Institute of World Affairs, London.
The Yearbook of World Affairs, 1956. N.Y., Praeger, 1956. 420 p. $4.50 Series of articles by experts on topics of vital importance, an alphabetical list by authors of books reviewed and a consolidated index to volumes 1-10; an extremely useful reference tool.

190. Japan, Bureau of Statistics, Office of the Prime Minister.
Japan Statistical Yearbook, 1955/56. 7th ed. Tokyo, 1956. 543 p. ¥2.000 Summary of statistical data on the demographic, social and cultural organization of post-war Japan.

191. The South American Handbook, 1956-1957. London, Trade and Travel Publications, 1956. 862 p. $2.50
Thirty-third annual edition of this yearbook and guide to the countries and resources of South and Central America, Mexico and Cuba.

C. GENERAL AND BIBLIOGRAPHICAL

192. American Institute of Pacific Relations.
Pakistan, A Selected, Annotated Bibliography. Compiled by George L. Abernethy. N.Y., 1957. 29 p. $.50 Bibliography of English language materials for the general reader.

193. American Institute of Pacific Relations.
South Asia: A Selected Bibliography on India, Pakistan, Ceylon. Compiled by Patric Wilson. N.Y., 1957. 41 p. $.75 Introduction to the wide range of literature on South Asia for the general reader including the most useful bibliographies and reference books.

194. Bibliografia Missionaria; Anno XIX: 1955. Roma, Unione Missionaria del Clero in Italia, 1956. 124 p.
Continuation of the important Roman Catholic bibliography on books and articles on missions.

195. The Capricorn Africa Society, Handbook for Speakers. Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia, Capricorn Africa Society, 1955. xvii + 51 questions and answers. 5/- Handy reference tool in the form of questions and answers with appendices on the organization and constitution of the society.

196. Cornell University, Department of Far Eastern Studies.
Bibliography of Thailand; a Selected List of Books and Articles with Annotations by the Staff of the Cornell Thailand Research Project. Ithaca, N.Y., 1956. 64 p. $1.00

197. China Institute in America.
An Analysis of Chinese Studies in American Colleges and Universities 1955-1956. N.Y., 1956. 47 p.
The result of a fact-finding survey on current courses about China offered in 220 American colleges and universities.

198. China Institute in America.
Basic Bibliography on China; For the Use of American Teachers. Compiled by Y. P. Mei. N.Y., 1956. 34 p. Basic, mimeographed, list of reliable books and some articles on China for background information on China with the U.S. public school teacher and his needs in mind.

199. Elliot, Florence, and Summerskill, Michael.
A Dictionary of Politics. Harmondsworth, England, Penguin, 1957. 329 p. $.95 Selected entries of terms frequently used in political discussions or important for the understanding of international affairs in general.

200. The Hebrew University, Institute of Economic Research.
A Selected Bibliography of Articles Dealing with the Middle East, II, 1951-1954. Jerusalem, 1955. 83 p.
This bibliography of periodical articles includes all areas of the Middle East and is selected from over fifty major international periodicals.

201. The International African Institute.
Selected Annotated Bibliography of Tropical Africa, compiled under the direction of Daryll Forde. N.Y., Twentieth Century Fund, Survey of Tropical Africa, 1956. 490 p. 40/- This extremely valuable bibliography was prepared primarily for the general student. It includes sections on geography; ethnography, sociology and linguistics; government and administration; economics; education; missions; and health.

202. Kennedy, Raymond.
Bibliography of Indonesian Peoples and Cultures. Rev. ed. edited by Thomas W. Maretski and H. Th. Fischer. 2 v. (Behavior Science Bibliographies) New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1955. 663 p. $3.25 each. The original form of the first edition is kept; the titles which have been added are arranged alphabetically within the original order. Areas are indicated by running titles and a section on bibliographical materials has been added.

203. Moyer, Kenyon E., comp.
From Iran to Morocco - From Turkey to the Sudan. N.Y., M.R.L., 1957. 51 p. $1.50 A selection of some six hundred books in the Missionary Research Library which deal with North Africa and the Near and Middle East. Each entry is briefly annotated. The titles are arranged by country and by subject matter.

204. New York University, Burma Research Project.
Annotated Bibliography of Burma. New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1956. 230 p. $5.75 Books, pamphlets, serials, government publications; more than a thousand published items listed by authors and topics, with brief annotations.

205. Philippine Studies Program.
Selected Bibliography of the Philippines. New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1956. 138 p. Books and pamphlets in 23 categories are briefly described; a useful reference bibliography but the section on Religion and Christian Missions is inadequate.

206. United Nations, Department of Public Information.
Everyman's United Nations, 1945-1955. 5th ed. N.Y., 1956. 444p. $1.50 "A ready reference to the structure, functions and work of the United Nations and its related agencies during the ten years ending December 31, 1955."

207. Starr, Edward C., ed.
A Baptist Bibliography. (Section: Colchester-Cz). Rochester, N.Y., American Baptist Historical Society, 1957. 233 p. $4.00 Continuation of this excellent bibliography of printed material by and about Baptists.

208. Winick, Charles.
Dictionary of Anthropology. N.Y., Philosophical Library, 1956. 579 p. $10.00 This dictionary "includes approximately 10,000 entries from archaeology, cultural anthropology, linguistics and physical anthropology."

209. Yabuki, Katsuji.
Japan Bibliographic Annual. Tokyo, Hokuseido Press, 1957. 177 p. $4.00 Classified bibliography of 420 English-language books on Japan published in and before 1956, and 750 titles of important articles; Index with 5,000 items including those listed in previous Annuals. Good for research students.

See also: 44, 95.

VI. Theory and Principles of Missions

210. Association of Professors of Missions and Related Fields.
Third Annual Meeting. Naperville, Ill., Evangelical Theological Seminary, 1956. 129 p. $1.50 Nine scholarly papers in the field of missions written by professors in American theological seminaries. Mimeographed, bound.

211. Campbell, Robert E., M.M.
Catholic Theology and the Human Race. (World Horizon Reports, no. 17) Maryknoll, N.Y., Maryknoll Publications, 1956. 54 p. $1.25 "The missionary implications of the Church's teaching on universal redemption."

212. Charles, Pierre, S.J.
Études Missiologiques. (Museum Lessianum, Section Missiologique, no. 33). Louvain, Belgique, Desclée De Brouwer, 1956. 432 p. 28/6 A memorial collection of articles written by this prolific Roman Catholic missioner who was one of the founders of the Museum Lessianum. Included in the collection are articles on the basis of missions, questions of method, and studies on Africa.

213. Danbolt, Erling.
Første Korintierbrev i lys av misjonen. Stavanger, Norge, Misjonsselskapets, 1956. 270 p. 32.-
Commentary on St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians with special emphasis on its significance for missions.

214. Miegge, Giovanni.
Religious Liberty. (World Christian Books, no. 16) London, Lutterworth, 1957. 95 p. 2/6 An exceedingly able discussion of religious liberty by a Waldensian scholar. Part I, Ideas, treats the origin and nature of religious liberty, its total claims and the possibility of freedom. Part II surveys the Facts of religious liberty today in Christian countries, the Communist world and the non-Christian world.

215. Miller, Donald G.
The Nature and Mission of the Church. Richmond, Va., Knox, 1957. 134 p. A non-technical conception of what the Church is like with a special chapter on the necessity, motive and sphere of the Church's mission.

216. Morgan, Bruce.
Called in Revolution. N.Y., Student Volunteer Movement, 1956. 112 p. Study book on the major issues discussed at the Student Volunteer Movement Quadrennial Conference held at Athens, Ohio, Dec. 1955.

217. Visser 't Hooft, W. A.
The Renewal of the Church. Philadelphia, Westminster, 1957. 128 p. $2.50 The General Secretary of the World Council of Churches sees a constant renewal at work, in the Old Covenant of Israel, in the New Covenant of the Christian Gospel, in the Church through history; and today in new movements of the Spirit as through growing Christian unity and adventurous witness.

218. Warren, Mary.
On With the Job. (C.M.S. In the World To-Day Series, no. 4). London, Highway, 1957. 83 p. 2/6 This booklet is dedicated to the unfinished task of missions, the never ending concern of getting the message across and all the practical problems which make the job both challenging and responsible.

See also: 2.

VII. Missionary Methods

A. EVANGELISM AND GENERAL CHURCH WORK

219. Howard, Peter.
An Idea to Win the World. London, Blandford, 1955. 127 p. 3/6 A compendium of vignettes and thoughts which gives a sketchy picture of the work and philosophy of Moral Rearmament, and its attempt to influence the world and challenge its materialist philosophy.

220. Walker, Alan.
The Whole Gospel for the Whole World. N.Y., Abingdon, 1957. 128 p. $2.00 A discussion of evangelism and of the churches' use of modern mass media of communication, the book offers proved techniques for more effective evangelistic effort.

See also: 42.

B. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

221. Conference on Theological Education in South East Asia, Bangkok, Thailand, Feb. 21-Mar. 8, 1956.
Record of Proceedings. Singapore, Malaya Publishing House, 1956. 74 p. Conference report, well illustrated, containing the proceedings, discussions and papers in outline form.

222. International Missionary Council.
Survey of the Training of the Ministry in Madagascar. London, N.Y., I.M.C., 1957. 51 p. $.35 "Report of a survey of theological education in Madagascar undertaken in Sept.-Nov., 1956," continues the well known surveys on the Training of the Minister; there is a valuable chapter on future perspectives.

223. Methodist Missionary Society.
On the Home Front; a Handbook for All Who Are Engaged in Missionary Education. London, Cargate Press, 1956. 115 p. Outline of the general principles and methods of missionary education.

224. Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., Board of Foreign Missions, Ecumenical Mission.
Education in West Pakistan. N.Y., 1955. 172 p. $1.00 "A Study of the Schools and Educational Needs Related to the Lahore Church Council Conference, Lahore, Pakistan, 1955."

225. Studley, Ellen M.
Winning Chinese Youth to Christ: A Study to Ascertain Effective Factors in Confronting Chinese Youth with the Christian Gospel and in Winning Their Response. N.Y., Union Theological Seminary, 1956. 266 p. A brilliant B.D. thesis about the Christian experience of forty Chinese youth studying in the United States, with valid conclusions; written by a Methodist missionary of long experience in China.

226. U.S., Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.
American Cooperation with Higher Education Abroad; a Survey of Current Programs, by Paul S. Bodenman. Washington, D.C., Government Printing Office, 1957. 211 p. $.75 Survey of program in higher education, their development and progress, and of programs which lead to the establishment of centers of learning.

C. CHRISTIAN LITERATURE AND LITERACY

227. Pei, Mario.
Language for Everybody. N.Y., Devin-Adair, 1957. 340 p. $5.00 Popular approach to the understanding of the dynamics of all languages: how they arise, develop, proliferate and wither away; a guide to identify written and spoken languages and a help towards learning them.

228. Stevick, Earl W.
Helping People Learn to Read. N.Y., Abingdon, 1957. 138 p. $2.50 "A manual for teachers of English as a second language," which combines explanations and practical exercises and should be a most effective aid in the classroom and elsewhere on the mission field.

229. Weber, H. R.
The Communication of the Gospel to Illiterates Based on a Missionary Experience in Indonesia. (I.M.C. Research Pamphlets, no. 4). London, SCM Press, 1957. 128 p. 7/6 The main part of this study, based upon missionary encounter with illiterates, deals with ways of communication in general as well as with the experiences gained in Luwuk-Banggai.

D. MEDICAL

230. Anderson, H. G.
The New Phase in Medical Mission Strategy. London, CMS Press, 1956. 24 p. A thoughtful appraisal of the aims and methods of medical mission.

231. Dodd, E. M.
Why Medical Missions? N.Y., Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., Board of Foreign Missions, 1956. 19 p. Brief pamphlet showing the scope of the work of medical missions.

232. Lee, Douglas H. K.
Climate and Economic Development in the Tropics. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 182 p. $3.50 Inquiry into the effects of tropical climates upon men and their environment, their working and economic conditions, with concrete suggestions for effective improvements.

E. RURAL MISSIONS AND AGRICULTURE

See: 162.

F. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF MISSIONARY ACTIVITIES

233. Cooke, Leslie E.
The Church Is There. Greenwich, Conn., Seabury, 1957. 59 p. $.95 Moving account of the Church's work in times of crisis, be it in Hungary, Gaza, India, Malaya, or Hong Kong, seen as the true fulfillment of the Church's mission.

234. Hogg, William Richey.
New Day Dawning. N.Y., World Horizons, 1957. 101 p. $.50 "A view of the Christian mission as seen from a world gathering of representatives from many Churches but largely of one denominational family," the Consultation at Lake Mohonkg called by the Presbyterian U.S.A. Board of Foreign Missions. Stimulating and inspiring.

235. Moore, John Iravers, and Staudacher, Rosemarian V.
Modern Crusaders. N.Y., Farrar, Straus & Cudahy, 1957. 190 p. $1.95 Roman Catholic missionary stories for young people, written about missionary heroes and heroines working in all parts of the world.

G. OTHER METHODS AND PROBLEMS

236. Dillistone, F. W.
Christianity and Communication. N.Y., Scribner, 1956. 156 p. $3.00 An analysis of the unchanging factors in all processes of communication, a short history of communication within an expanding Christianity, and a practical application of principles to our situation today.

237. Fordham University, The Institute of Mission Studies.
Social Action in Mission Lands. J. Franklin Ewing, S.J., ed. N.Y., Fordham University Press, 1955. 173 p. $2.00 "Proceedings of the Fordham University Conference of Mission Specialists, third annual meeting, Jan. 22-23, 1955", including seven papers by various experts, with a general survey of the field.

238. Houghton, A. T.
Preparing to be a Missionary. London, Inter-Varsity Fellowship, 1956. 96 p. 3/- Help for young people on such questions as, what constitutes a call, missionary training and methods etc., from a conservative point of view.

See also: 214.

VIII. Christianity and the Non-Christian Religions: Other Ideologies

A. RELIGIONS OF PRIMITIVE PEOPLES

See: 80, 94, 140, 142, 143, 174.

B. RELIGIONS OF INDIA

239. Raven, Canon Charles.
Hinduism and Christianity; a Neglected Crisis. St. Martin-in-the-Fields, England, St. Martin-in-the-Fields, 1956. 14 p. 1/- The William Ainsle Memorial lectures with special mention of the relationship of the Church in North and South India.

See also: 249.

C. ISLAM

240. Arberry, A. J.
Revelation and Reason in Islam. London, Allen & Unwin, 1957. 122 p. 12/6 The first study of this subject to appear in English, the present lectures are based on important texts recently available. Professor Arberry reviews the conflict between Revelation and Reason in Islam and examines the attempts made by theology, philosophy, mysticism and authoritarianism to resolve the dilemma.

241. Kellerhals, Emanuel.
Der Islam. 2nd ed. Basel, Schweiz, Basler Missionsbuchhandlung, 1956. 403 p. SFr. 20.50 The essence of Islam, its history and teaching; slightly revised and enlarged 2nd edition in which political developments are brought up to date.

242. Levy, Reuben.
The Social Structure of Islam. 2nd ed. Cambridge, England, University Press, 1957. 536 p. 50/- Originally published in two volumes, under the title "The Sociology of Islam," this is an investigation of "the effects of the religious system of Islam on the life and organization of the societies which acknowledge it."

See also: 38, 101, 249, 252.

D. BUDDHISM

243. Suzuki, Daisetz Teitaro.
Mysticism: Christian and Buddhist. Edited by Ruth Nanda Anshen. (World Perspectives, v. 12) N.Y., Harper, 1957. 214 p. $3.50 Essays on Zen and Shin Buddhism and the mysticism of Meister Eckhart, also selections of writings from Japanese mystics, which all make for a provocative--though small--volume in the field of comparative religion.

See also: 24, 59, 112, 245, 249, 252.

E. RELIGIONS OF CHINA: CONFUCIANISM AND TAOISM

244. Cheng, Te-k'un.
The Religious Outlook of the Chinese. London, China Society, 1956. 8 p. A brief, interesting essay on the everyday religious thought and life of the Chinese people, especially the "man-centered attitude toward religion."

See also: 30, 249.

F. SHINTO

245. Kobayashi, Sakae.
Changes in Japanese Religions After World War II. N.Y., Union Theological Seminary, 1957. 153 p.
This S.T.M. thesis is a brilliant piece of research into the Shinto and Buddhist sects which have developed in Japan during the past decade.

See also: 59.

G. JUDAISM

See: 117.

H. COMMUNISM

246. Caldwell, John C.
Communism in Our World. N.Y., John Day, 1956. 126 p. $2.75 A book for American youth by a militant anti-communist, marred by many errors of fact and lack of sober judgment.

247. The Evangelical United Brethren Church, The Committee on Christianity and Communism of the Interboard Program Committee.
Christian Faith Encounters Communism. Dayton, Ohio, Otterbein, 1956. 96 p. $.25 A study booklet, by several authors, on crucial areas of the Christian-Communist confrontation; some suggestions for Christian strategy; and a call which emphasizes the gravity of this threat to Christianity.

248. Guins, George C.
Communism on the Decline. N.Y., Philosophical Library, 1956. 287 p. $7.50 The author believes that the shattering of Communist illusions, the unwieldy bureaucracy and other inner weaknesses presage a growing decline in Communist appeal and power.

See also: 20, 25, 40, 45, 46, 65, 73, 75, 77, 90, 110, 111, 131, 155, 249, 276.

I. GENERAL

249. Braden, Charles S.
Jesus Compared, a Study of Jesus and Other Great Founders of Religions. Englewood Cliffs, N.J., Prentice-Hall, 1957. 230 p. $5.35 A comparison between Jesus and Buddha, Krishna, Mahavira, Nanak, Confucius, Laotzu, Zoroaster, Moses and Mohammed.

250. Christensen, Jens.
Forargelsens Gud. Kobenhavn, Danks Pathanmissions Forlag, 1956. 115 p. "The God of the Scandal of the Cross"; a study of the Christian encounter with other religions.

251. Freytag, Walter.
The Gospel and the Religions. (I.M.C. Research Pamphlets, no. 5). London, SCM Press, 1957. 47 p. 3/-
A Biblical inquiry into the mysteries of religion in general. The religions as a challenge to our faith are seen under two main headings: One religion among other religions, and The Biblical answer.

252. Hilliard, F. H.
The Buddha, the Prophet and the Christ. London, Allen & Unwin (N.Y., Macmillan), 1956. 169 p. 12/6
An attempt to bring together from the canonical writings of the three great religions those passages which reflect the belief that their founders were possessed of supernatural qualities.

253. Kitagawa, Joseph M.
Theology and the Science of Religion. Reprint. Anglican Theological Review, New York, Jan. 1957. p.1-20.
Excellent survey article on the scientific study of religions, its development and five epochs, and a confrontation of the positions of a theological history of religions (Tillich) and the science of religion with a theological concern (Wach).

254. Landis, Benson Y.
World Religions. N.Y., Dutton, 1957. 158 p. $2.95 "A brief guide to the principal beliefs and teachings of the religions of the world and to the statistics of organized religion." Special sections are devoted to statistical tables and recent developments in the religious bodies throughout the world; a short glossary of terms and an index are added.

255. Life.
The World's Great Religions. N.Y., Time, 1957. 310 p. $13.50 A splendidly illustrated and very readable popular description of the living religions today, with an introduction by Paul Hutchinson, late editor of The Christian Century.

256. Massé, Henri.
Persian Beliefs and Customs. Translated from the French by Charles A. Messner. (Behavior Science Translations). New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1954. 516 p. $4.75 An excellent, comprehensive study by a French social scientist who gathered his material from firsthand experience. Covers all areas of Persian folklore, superstition, custom and practices. Includes an outstanding bibliography.

257. Shah, Sayed Idries.
Oriental Magic. N.Y., Philosophical Library, 1956. 206 p. $7.50 Survey of magical traditions and techniques and a comparison of those of the West with those of the Middle and Far East.

258. Vicedom, George.
Die Weltreligionen im Angriff auf die Christenheit. (Theologische Existenz Heute, Heft 51). München, Deutschland, Kaiser, 1957. 31 p. DM 1.50 An excellent analysis of the situation of Christianity today in relation to the revivals and expansive movements in the major non-Christian religions, with an emphasis on doctrinal aspects.

259. Yohannan, John D.
A Treasury of Asian Literature. N.Y., John Day, 1956. 487 p. $7.50 Prose, poetry and scriptures of the great cultures and religions of the Middle and the Far East.

260. Zaehner, R. C.
The Teachings of the Magi; a Compendium of Zoroastrian Beliefs. London, Allen & Unwin, 1956. 156 p. 10/6 A synopsis of Zoroastrian beliefs presented by means of selections from original texts, including commentary by the editor.

See also: 277.

IX. Social and Political Relations of Missions

261. Alpenfels, Ethel J.
Sense and Nonsense about Race. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 64 p. $.50 A brief but fascinating introduction to the study of races and racial problems by an anthropologist, showing the fallacy of race myths and superstitions.

262. American Assembly.
The United States and the Far East; Background Papers and the Final Report of the Tenth American Assembly, 1956. N.Y., Columbia University, 1956. 233 p. Background information and crucial issues in United States relations with Japan, Korea and China (Communist China and Taiwan), followed by questions for discussion and the Report of the Assembly; an illuminating set of papers.

263. Balasundaram, Palayam M.
What Do American Students Think About India? N.Y., Privately printed, 1957. 28 p. $2.00 Opinion study based on a survey of twelve northeastern colleges through questionnaires and personal interviews, dedicated to better understanding between the peoples of the U.S. and India.

264. Ball, Margaret M., and Killough, Hugh B.
International Relations. N.Y., Ronald, 1956. 667 p. $6.95 Textbook on international problems describing the international community, national policies, presenting an analysis of international organizations, and of international relations and policies of the great powers.

265. Keeny, S. M.
Half the World's Children; a Diary of UNICEF at Work in Asia. N.Y., Association Press, 1957. 254 p. $3.50 Colorful, vivid picture of the work of United Nations Children's Fund by the Director of the Asia Regional Office, stressing the human factors rather than mere statistics in this description of seven years history of progress.

266. Lind, Andrew W., ed.
Race Relations in World Perspective. Honolulu, T.H., University of Hawaii Press, 1955. 488 p. $6.00 "Papers read at the Conference on Race Relations in World Perspective, Honolulu, 1954", dealing with the facts and problems of race relations the world over. Good for handy reference.

267. Loveday, A.
Reflections on International Administration. Oxford, England, Clarendon, 1956. 334 p. 42/-
The author advocates a policy of administrative liberalism and the creation of a real international civil service; he draws mainly on the record of the UN and also on his own personal experiences as an international official.

268. Mason, Philip.
Christianity and Race. N.Y., St. Martin's Press, 1957. 174 p. $2.50 The idea of race is seen as an universal one in which Christianity is challenged from without by scientific humanism and from within by the attitude of the Dutch Reformed Churches in South Africa.

269. Maston, T. B.
Christianity and World Issues. N.Y., Macmillan, 1957. 374 p. $5.00 The basic social issues, such as family, race relations, economic and political problems, are discussed, and attempted solutions are given in a definite Christian orientation.

270. Mays, Benjamin E.
Seeking to be Christian in Race Relations. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 84 p. $1.50 A vigorous discussion of Church and race, the varying practices of Christian Churches in race relations, and the challenge to the Church by the secular world to rethink its own practice.

271. New York University, Graduate Studies in the United Nations.
Annual Review of United Nations Affairs, 1955-1956. Edited by Clyde Eagleton and Richard N. Swift. N.Y., New York University Press, 1957. 217 p. $4.50 Concise survey of all that this world organization attempted and accomplished during 1955 and part of 1956; evaluation of crucial issues and a guide to the official releases by the United Nations.

272. Pope, Liston.
The Kingdom Beyond Caste. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 170 p. $3.00 The problem of race seen in national and international perspective; the book reflects a deep insight into the history of prejudice and discrimination and gives pertinent suggestions for the solution of present day problems based upon the Christian faith.

273. Roberts, Henry L., and others.
Decisions...1957. (Headline Series, no. 121). N.Y., Foreign Policy Association, 1957. 102 p. $.35 Compilation of essays on vital issues in world politics with the aim of stimulating discussion and interest.

274. Root, Robert.
Progress Against Prejudice; the Church Confronts the Race Problem. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 165 p. $2.50 Study book on what American churches and individuals are doing in intergroup relations.

275. See, Ruth Douglas.
What Can We Do? N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 64 p. $.60 A fine little book for young people about race relations, on the background of the world situation; questions for discussion and concrete suggestions for action.

276. White, William Lindsay.
The Captives of Korea; an Unofficial White Paper on the Treatment of War Prisoners. N.Y., Scribner, 1957. 347 p. $4.95 The startling documented story of the prisoners of the Korean War and their treatment, the Communist prisoners held by the U.N. as well as the American army prisoners of whom 58% will never return from Communist captivity.

See also: 97, 197.

X. General Anthropology and Related Subjects

277. Annali Lateranensi. v.19. Citta del Vaticano, Tipografia Poliglotta Vaticano, 1955. 418 p. Anthology of ethnological and religious studies by various scholars, written in Italian and French.

278. Chase, Stuart.
The Proper Study of Mankind. rev. ed. N.Y., Harper, 1956. 327 p. $4.00 Extensive study that ranges over the broad aspects of human behavior including labor relations, race relations, economics and others, with the aim of showing changes in our knowledge of human society to date.

279. Greenberg, Joseph H.
Essays in Linguistics. (Viking Fund Publications in Anthropology, no. 24). N.Y., Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research, 1957. 108 p. $2.00 Groups of essays on the methodology of language description, historical linguistics and the relation between language and culture.

280. Linton, Ralph.
The Tree of Culture. N.Y., Knopf, 1956. 692 p. $7.50 Description of the lines of human culture which have produced the great civilizations of the world.

See also: 120, 143, 208, 256.

XI. Devotional

281. Bach, Marcus.
The Circle of Faith. N.Y., Hawthorn Books, 1957. 189 p. $3.95 Inquiry into the conceptions of faith as held by Therese Neumann, Shoghi Effendi, Helen Keller, Pope Pius XII, and Albert Schweitzer.

282. Chiu, Y. T.
Meditations of a Christian Chinese. N.Y., Pageant Press, 1956. 101 p. $2.50 Simple, moving essays by a Chinese Christian scientist on various phases of Church life and work in his native land.

283. Neill, Stephen.
Who Is Jesus Christ? (World Christian Books, no. 14). London, Lutterworth, 1956. 95 p. 2/6 Showing the way from experience to doctrine, the book discusses the Jesus of the Gospel as well as the Christ in the witness of his followers.

284. Niles, D. T.
Living With the Gospel. (World Christian Books, no. 17). London, Lutterworth, 1957. 96 p. 2/6
The story of Jesus retold for modern man, by the well-known Ceylonese Christian scholar and evangelist.

285. Maycock, Edward A.
A Letter of Wise Counsel. (World Christian Books, no. 15). London, Lutterworth, 1957. 96 p. 2/6
Studies in the first epistle of Peter by the Vice-Principal of Chichester Theological College who was for fifteen years a missionary to Nyasaland.

XII. Index to Shortened Names of Publishers

SHORT FORM OF NAME	FULL NAME*	HOME OFFICE
Abingdon	Abingdon Press	Nashville, Tenn., and New York
Allen & Unwin	George Allen & Unwin, Ltd.	London
Arnold	Edward Arnold	London
Augsburg	Augsburg Publishing House	Minneapolis, Minn.
Beacon Hill	Beacon Hill Press	Kansas City, Mo.
Bethany	Bethany Press	St. Louis, Mo.
Blandford	Blandford Press	London
Bobbs-Merrill	Bobbs-Merrill Co.	Indianapolis, Ind.
Bond Wheelwright	The Bond Wheelwright Co.	Portland, Me.
Brill	E. J. Brill	Leiden, Netherlands
Bruce	Bruce Publishing Company	Milwaukee, Wis.
Burns, Oates	Burns, Oates & Washbourne, Ltd.	London
C. M. S. Press	Church Missionary Society	London
Cargate	Cargate Press	London
Christian Action	Christian Action Fellowship	London
Clarendon	Clarendon Press	London
Collins	William Collins Sons & Co., Ltd.	London
Crown	Crown Publishers	New York
John Day	John Day Co., Inc.	New York
Devin-Adair	The Devin-Adair Co.	New York
Doubleday	Doubleday & Co., Inc.	Garden City, N.Y.
Dutton	E. P. Dutton & Co., Inc.	New York
Echter	Echter-Verlag	Würzburg, Germany
Edinburgh House	Edinburgh House Press	London
Eerdman	William B. Eerdman's Publishing Co.	Grand Rapids, Mich.
Falca	Falca Publishers	Columbus, Ohio
Grove	Grove Press	New York
Harcourt, Brace	Harcourt, Brace & Company, Inc.	New York
Harper	Harper and Brothers	New York
Highway	Highway Press	London
Holt	Henry Holt & Co., Inc.	New York
Houghton Mifflin	Houghton Mifflin Company	Boston, Mass.
I. M. C.	International Missionary Council	London, New York
Judson	Judson Press	Philadelphia, Pa.
Kenedy	P. J. Kenedy & Son	New York
Knopf	Alfred A. Knopf, Inc.	New York
Knox	John Knox Press	Richmond, Va.
Light and Life	Light and Life Press	Winona Lake, Indiana
Lippincott	J. B. Lippincott Company	Philadelphia, Pa.
Little, Brown	Little, Brown & Company	Boston, Mass.
Longmans, Green	Longmans, Green & Co., Inc.	New York and London
Lutterworth	Lutterworth Press	London
M. R. L.	Missionary Research Library	New York
Macmillan	The Macmillan Company	New York
McGraw-Hill	McGraw-Hill Book Company, Inc.	New York
McKay	David McKay Co., Inc.	New York
Methuen	Methuen & Co., Ltd.	London

SHORT FORM OF NAME	FULL NAME*	HOME OFFICE
Mohr	J. B. Mohr Verlag	Tübingen, Germany
Moody	Moody Press	Chicago, Ill.
Morrow	William Morrow & Co., Inc.	New York
Muhlenberg	Muhlenberg Press	Philadelphia, Pa.
Murray	John Murray Publishers	London
NCCC,U.S.A.	National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America	New York
Nelson	Thomas Nelson & Sons	London and New York
Norton	W. W. Norton & Company, Inc.	New York
Otterbein	Otterbein Press	Dayton, Ohio
Praeger	Frederick A. Praeger, Inc.	New York
Peyronnet	Peyronnet & Cie.	Paris
Regnery	Henry Regnery Co.	Chicago, Ill.
Reynal	Reynal & Hitchcock	New York
Rinehart	Rinehart & Company, Inc.	New York
Ronald	The Ronald Press	New York
Roy	Roy Publishers	New York
SCM Press	Student Christian Movement Press, Ltd.	London
S.P.C.K.	Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge	London
S.P.G.	Society for the Propagation of the Gospel	London
Scribner	Charles Scribner's Sons	New York
Sloane	William Sloane Associates, Inc.	New York
Steiner	Franz Steiner	Wiesbaden, Germany
Tuttle	Charles E. Tuttle Company	Rutland, Vt.
Twayne	Twayne Publishers, Inc.	New York
Vantage	Vantage Press, Inc.	New York
Vallentine	Vallentine, Mitchell & Co., Ltd.	London
Van Nostrand	D. Van Nostrand Company, Inc.	Princeton, N.J., and New York
Van Rees	Van Rees Press	New York
Vora	Vora & Co.	Bombay, India
Westminster	Westminster Press	Philadelphia, Pa.
Wiley	John Wiley & Sons, Inc.	New York
Wilson	The H. W. Wilson Company	New York
Zeno	Zeno Publishers	London

* Only the names of publishers appear in the above list whose complete firm names have been shortened. For other addresses, consult list of publishers in H. W. Wilson, Cumulative Book Index, which is available in most libraries.

Gaylord
SPEEDY BINDER
Syracuse, N. Y.
Stockton, Calif.

GTU Library
3 2400 00645 5806